

Declaration of Faith

I don't know about you, but I am excited to be in the House of the Lord today. I came expecting to feel a touch from the Lord, to feel His Spirit fill this place, and to receive more today than I received yesterday. God is a God of more, and if we wish to grow in Him, we need to receive more. If we aren't receiving more, it's because we aren't expecting more. I refuse to settle for anything less than what God is willing to give.

Today, I declare:

- My expectation is in His promises to never leave nor forsake me.

Hebrews 13:5 (KJV): Let your conversation be without covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

- My expectation is in His mercy and grace that forgives all of my sins.

Ephesians 1:7 (KJV): In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

- My expectation is in His healing power, physically, mentally, and emotionally.

Psalms 147:3 (KJV): He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

- My expectation is in His love that surpasses all understanding.

Philippians 4:7 (KJV): And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

- My expectation is in His power to do exceedingly above all I can ask.

Ephesians 3:20 (KJV): Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.

- My expectation is not in the things of this world but solely and completely in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalms 62:5 (KJV): My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

As I stand in the presence of God, my heart is filled with eager anticipation for all He has in store. These declarations solidify my commitment to live each day with an unwavering expectation of His boundless love and power. My journey of faith is ever-evolving, guided by His promises that never fail. With each passing moment, I choose to trust in His perfect plan and embrace the infinite possibilities He offers. May we all walk forward with hearts wide open, confident in the knowledge that God's grace is sufficient, His love ever-present, and His power beyond measure.

When I declare my faith in God, I am reminded of the profound and encompassing nature of His Word. A scripture that resonates deeply with this declaration of faith is Hebrews 11:1 (KJV): Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

This verse encapsulates the essence of holding steadfast in our belief, even when the path ahead is not visible. It challenges us to trust in His divine wisdom and timing, affirming that our faith is the foundation for the hopes and promises we eagerly await. As I dwell on this scripture, my heart is encouraged to continue moving forward with a resilient spirit and steadfast trust in God's everlasting covenant.
