

New Years Resolution

"I made it to the end of the year. Satan is mad because God kept me all year long. When it looked like I was going to give up, when it looked like I couldn't make it any further, God brought me through it. It didn't matter what people said. It didn't matter what the circumstance declared. My God brought me out with a mighty hand."

How many of us felt like we wouldn't make it to the end of this year? How many of us were ready to give up, but God showed up just in time to pull us through whatever we faced? Brother Buck, did you think you would see another year?

Isaiah 43:2 (KJV): When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

Isaiah's words are a beacon of hope, assuring us that God's guidance is inevitable, even in the darkest times. This verse provides comfort and strength for those struggling in faith or facing insurmountable challenges. It reiterates the comforting truth that we are never alone, no matter how daunting the circumstances may seem.

Not only does God promise to be with us, but he also promises to protect us from harm. Whether it's raging waters or blazing fires, we can trust that God will keep us safe and see us through our trials. This promise doesn't mean that we won't experience difficulties or hardships, but it does mean that we can have faith that God will bring us through them.

Psalms 34:19 (KJV): Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

This verse in Psalms reminds us that regardless of how many challenges we face or how difficult they may be, we can always take comfort in knowing that the Lord will guide us through and alleviate all our troubles. Sometimes, it can be hard to see an end to a complex or challenging situation, but we can trust that God has a plan for us and will deliver us from our afflictions.

2 Corinthians 4:8-9 (KJV): We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.

2nd Corinthians underlines that although we may face continuous trials, God does not abandon us. Instead, these trials serve to strengthen us. They may cause us to feel troubled or perplexed, but they do not lead us into despair or destruction. Instead, they allow us to rely on God's strength and guidance even more.

God's faithfulness is truly amazing. Many of us have faced challenges and obstacles throughout the year that tried to bring us down, but God's love and strength continued to uphold us. Even when we felt like giving up, He never left our side. As we look back on the past year, let us remember all the times God brought us through difficult situations. Let us not forget to express our gratitude, for it is in thanking Him for His unwavering presence and support in our lives in the past year that our faith is strengthened. Let us pray that he will continue to be with us in the new year until the very end.

Here are ten New Year's resolutions for you:

1. Read the entire Bible by the end of 2024.
2. Pray an extra 10 minutes every day.
3. Attend church services regularly.
4. Forgive or seek forgiveness from someone.
5. Build relationships with other Christians, learning from their experiences and perspectives.
6. Practice being patient, kind, and humble.
7. Invest in personal growth and self-improvement spiritually, intellectually, and physically.
8. Share God's love with others.
9. Study the Bible using different resources such as commentaries, study guides, and concordances.
10. You can watch online sermons instead of your favorite TV show. Just ensure the preacher is Apostolic Pentecostal and does not preach false doctrines.
