

The Seventh Day is Coming

Joshua 6:3-4 (KJV): And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

Joshua 6:15-16 (KJV): And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the Lord hath given you the city.

Joshua 6:20 (KJV): So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

The Hebrew word for compass is saw-bab, which means to surround, encircle, or march around.

The Lord told Joshua to march around Jericho once for six days and seven times on the seventh day. At the end of the seventh march on the seventh day, the seven priests would blow seven trumpets, and the people would shout, bringing the walls of Jericho crumbling to the ground.

Many of us are facing our own Jericho moments in life. We have obstacles and challenges that seem impossible to overcome. Sometimes, we may feel like we are just walking in circles around our problems without progress. But just like the Israelites had to march around Jerico for six days before seeing any results, there may be times when we have to keep enduring and trusting in God's timing. When the walls finally come crashing down, it will be clear that we can only overcome our obstacles by God's grace and power.

God wants someone to know that you made it to the sixth day. Don't give up now; the seventh day is coming.
